

Rio Hondo College and University of Southern California
Transfer Advisement Sheet for the Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration
Effective Fall 2009 – Summer 2010

Applications for admission to USC's Marshall School of Business can be submitted after completing at least three semesters of college work and 30 transferable units as well as the courses listed below. Admission is competitive; students with an overall GPA of 3.6 and grades of "B" or better in the courses required for admission will have an advantage in the admissions review process. Students who wish to transfer to USC as a Business major must complete the required courses listed below.

| Admission Requirements 1 | USC Course | Rio Hondo College |
|---------------------------------|------------------------|--------------------------|
| Writing Requirement | WRIT-130 or 140 | ENGL 201 or 201H |
| Microeconomics | ECON-203 | ECON 102 or 102H |
| Macroeconomics | ECON-205 | ECON 101 or 101H |
| Fund. Principles of Calculus 2* | MATH-118 | MATH 170 |

* Completion of Rio Hondo College MATH 190 (USC MATH-125 Calculus I) will waive the USC MATH-118 requirement.

General Education Information:

Please refer to the articulation agreement for a detailed list of general education requirements. Please use this document in conjunction with the most recent version of the Transferring to USC brochure and this advisement sheet. Articulation agreements are available at <http://www.usc.edu/dept/ARR/articulation>.

Admissions Information:

All questions regarding eligibility, admissions criteria, or admissions process should be directed to the Marshall School of Business, Office of Undergraduate Admissions, Bridge Hall 105, (213) 740-8885.

Successful completion of two accounting courses (ACCT 101 and 102) allows registration in BUAD 305x. ACCT 101 and 102 will transfer as elective credit. If you do not complete the two semesters of accounting prior to entering USC, you would enroll in BUAD 250a and BUAD 250b and take the two semesters of accounting at USC. Admission into the Leventhal School of Accounting is granted through the Marshall School of Business. Prospective accounting majors must receive grades of "B" or better in both ACCT 101 and 102.

NOTE: This advisement sheet is derived from the Articulation Agreement between USC and your college. This advisement sheet is not a formal document due to regular updates and changes. Please refer to the articulation agreements on the USC Website for new updates at <http://www.usc.edu/dept/ARR/articulation> prior to enrollment. For questions regarding course equivalency, please contact the Registrars Office at USC.
