

Leventhal School of Accounting
UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES

OBJ 1	Technical Knowledge	Students will demonstrate technical proficiency in the accounting discipline, including the use of technical accounting knowledge to help solve problems and make decisions.
OBJ 2	Research and Analytical Skills	Students will demonstrate the ability to research, critically analyze, synthesize, and evaluate information including professional standards for decision making in the local, regional and global business environment.
OBJ 3	Ethical Decision Making	Students will demonstrate the ability to research, critically analyze, synthesize, and evaluate information including professional standards for decision making in the local, regional and global business environment.
OBJ 4	Communication	Students will demonstrate the ability to communicate ideas both orally and in writing in a clear, organized and persuasive manner.
OBJ 5	Collaborative Professional Environment	Students will demonstrate leadership skills and the ability to work cooperatively and productively to accomplish established goals.