USC Marshall Two-Year Involvement Plan

Junior Year
- Participate in Marshall Connections Program activities and leadership boards
- Join a student organization at Marshall or USC
- Apply to Career Advantage Program (CAP)
- Apply to USC Global Fellows Internship program at USC Career Center
- Apply to the BRIDGE Externship Program
- Apply to EXCEL travel program (Fall and Spring)
- Apply to Marshall’s International Exchange Program (IEP)
- Apply to Winslow Maxwell Global Summer Internship Program
- Apply to Marshall Summer Internship Program (MISIP)
- Serve as IEP or MICC host
- Participate in Marshall Community Service Day
- Apply to participate in Global Business Brigades and Global Micro Finance Brigades
- Register for connectSC at USC Career Center
- Register for on-campus recruitment at USC Career Center. Attend resume and interviewing workshops as well as Internship Week, the Career Fair, and Career Fest.
- Attend the USC Marshall Recruiter Receptions (Fall and Spring)
- Register and review Marshall Career Source
- Secure an internship for summer
- Attend a job search workshop offered via the Student Services Office
- Meet with a career advisor to develop a job search strategy or graduate school admission plan

Senior Year
- Become president of a student organization
- Apply to Career Advantage Program (CAP)
- Apply to EXCEL travel program (Fall and Spring)
- Apply to Marshall’s International Exchange Program (IEP)
- Serve as IEP or MICC host
- Participate in Marshall Community Service Day
- Register for on-campus recruitment at USC Career Center
- Attend interviewing workshops, career panels, Career Fest, as well as the Career Fairs at USC Career Center
- Attend the USC Marshall Recruiter Receptions (Fall and Spring)
- Register and review Marshall Career Source
- Attend Marshall Alumni Association Networking Events
- Be actively involved in the job search process or have accepted a job offer. OR be actively involved in the graduate school admission process or have been granted admission to a program.
- INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS: Investigate requirements for Optional Practical Training (OPT) after graduation.

For more information about Marshall/USC involvement:
Undergraduate Student Services Office
HOH 200
(213) 740-5705
studentservices@marshall.usc.edu