Four-Year Involvement Plan

Freshmen
- Get involved in Marshall Connections Program activities.
- Join a Marshall student organization.
- Consider joining USC student organizations such as USG, Residential Student Government, Helenes, Trojan Knights, etc. (choose one to focus on in your first year).
- Apply to the Learning about International Commerce (LINC) Program or participate in GLP (invitation only).
- Register for connectSC and Marshall Career Source.
- Attend resume workshops and Internship Week at the USC Career Center.
- Take personality and skills assessments at the USC Career Center.
- Sign up to be an Explore USC host.
- Attend USC Career Fest (Spring).
- Participate in Marshall Community Service Day.
- Participate in the USC Joint Education Project.
- Attend an Alternative Spring Break program through the USC Volunteer Center.
- Secure an internship for summer (it is never too early!).

Sophomore
- Take on a leadership position (Director or VP) within a student organization.
- Apply to the Career Advantage Program (CAP).
- Attend the USC Career Fair.
- Attend the USC Marshall Recruiter Reception (Fall and Spring).
- Review the Marshall Career Source weekly.
- Attend resume workshops and Internship Week at the USC Career Center.
- Apply to USC Global Fellows Internship program at USC Career Center.
- Apply to the Winslow Maxwell Summer Internship Program.
- Apply to the Marshall in Manhattan summer internship program.
- Serve as an IEP host.
- Apply to participate in Global Brigades @ Marshall.
- Attend an Alternative Spring Break program via the USC Volunteer Center.
- Participate in Marshall Community Service Day.
- Consider studying abroad via the USC Overseas Studies Office.
- Attend career development workshops offered through Marshall Student Services.
- Meet with a career advisor to establish a career plan.
- Secure an internship for summer.

Junior
- Take on a leadership (VP) position within a student organization.
- Apply to the Career Advantage Program (CAP).
- Try out for Marshall Case Team.
- Serve as an IEP host.
- Apply to the Marshall EXCEL travel program.
- Apply to Marshall’s International Exchange Program (IEP).
- Apply to the Winslow Maxwell Summer Internship Program.
- Apply to the Marshall International Summer Internship Program (MISIP).
- Participate in Marshall Community Service Day.
- Apply to the USC Global Fellows Internship program at USC Career Center.
- Register for on-campus recruiting through the USC Career Center.
- Attend interviewing workshops, career panels, Career Fest, as well as the Career Fairs at USC Career Center.
- Attend the USC Marshall Recruiter Reception (Fall and Spring).
- Review the Marshall Career Source daily.
- Attend a job search workshop offered through Marshall Student Services.
- Develop a job search strategy or graduate school admission plan.
- Secure an internship for summer.

Senior
- Become president of a student organization.
- Apply to the Career Advantage Program (CAP).
- Apply to the EXCEL travel program.
- Apply to Marshall’s International Exchange Program (IEP).
- Serve as an IEP host.
- Try out for Marshall Case Team.
- Participate in Marshall Community Service Day.
- Register for on-campus recruiting through the USC Career Center.
- Attend interviewing workshops, career panels, Career Fest, as well as the Career Fairs at USC Career Center.
- Attend the USC Marshall Recruiter Reception (Fall and Spring).
- Review the Marshall Career Source daily.
- Attend Marshall Alumni Association Networking Events.
- Be actively involved in the job search process and accept a job offer OR be actively involved in the graduate school admission process and gain admission to a program.
- INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS: Investigate requirements for Optional Practical Training (OPT) after graduation.