Master of Science in Business Administration

Essay Questions:
1) Why do you want to pursue a Master of Science in Business Administration? What are your reasons for pursuing this advanced degree and how will the Marshall MSBA assist you in achieving these goals?
2) The MSBA program allows you to build your own curriculum in order to develop your knowledge of an area of specialization. Provide a proposed course of study (tentative list of courses that you plan to take).
   (Note: this is for admissions review purposes only and does not constitute an official program of study.)
3) Do you plan to take classes on a full-time or part-time basis? Please respond to the following.
   How many classes do you expect to take each semester?
   When do you expect to finish the degree?
   How many classes do you plan to take each semester?
   When do you expect to complete the degree?

Master of Science in Global Supply Chain Management

Please respond to the following questions.
1) Describe yourself personally and professionally in 250 words or less.
2) Describe your personal views on Global Supply Chain Management and how you plan to be part of this field.
3) Describe your five- to ten-year plan and how you see the Master of Science in Global Supply Chain Management degree helping you achieve your goals.

(Online Program)

Master of Science in Social Entrepreneurship

Essay #1: Personal Statement (300 words max)
Select one or two prompts from the following (300 words max total).
- In what moments or situations do you shine? If we were to ask your close friends or family to describe your strengths, what would they say?
- Fill in the blank: “I would be willing to get arrested protesting ___________.” Explain why.
- What’s the hardest thing you have ever done?
- Describe a time when you took a great risk. What was the outcome?
- Describe a spectacular failure in your life. What did you learn?
- Fill in the blank: “In my experience, people are fundamentally ___________.” Explain.

Essay #2: Statement of Purpose (300 words max)
How will this degree program serve your personal and/or professional goals?