

The thematic format of Marshall's EMBA program presents functional and technical concepts in an integrated manner consistent with how today's executives and general managers approach business issues and opportunities. I emerged from the program with greater understanding of business fundamentals and the ability to synthesize data into value creating insights.

"The diversity of talent in each and every EMBA group is astonishing and I know someone that I can turn to if I'm looking for advice on anything from accounting to healthcare to technology, and so on. You will build lifelong friends in your direct cohort. Each day I am somehow reminded of how proud and humble I am to be a part of this special group of people. Faithful, scholarly, skillful, courageous & ambitious — the attributes of the Trojans are so true!"

"Having previously attended graduate school, I found my experience at Marshall to be unparalleled in its extraordinary high academic quality and faculty experience. The faculty at Marshall is extremely effective and knowledgeable. The ability of our professors to engage each student in the program through facilitated dialogue and discussion added to the already rich learning environment. The interaction between professors and students was similar to one between colleagues and the faculty was, without question, dedicated and responsive to our class and to each student's individual needs."

Keyvan Samini, Class of 2014
