

The Master of Science in Finance (MSF) is a 1-year accelerated program, offering student's a cost-effective option for a graduate degree. The MSF curriculum is designed to offer a comprehensive foundation in finance and flexibility to pursue individual interests while learning from award-winning teachers, scholars and practitioners. The primary objective of the Master of Science in Finance is to provide individuals with the necessary skills and knowledge to make an immediate impact as analysts within the various realms of finance and thus advance their careers.

MSF Class of 2020

Class Size	66
Average GPA	3.53
Median GMAT	714
Average GRE	320
Colleges and Universities Represented	41
Gender Breakdown	Female 42% Male 58%
Percentage of International Students	75%

STEM DESIGNATION

The Master of Science in Finance program at USC is a STEM designated program, which allows international students on F-1 visas to apply for a 24-month extension of their optional practical training (OPT).

OTHER FACTS

The TFE Times Master of Finance rankings has listed the MSF program at USC as one of the top 10 MSF programs in the country over the past 3 years.

Contact Information

USC Marshall School of Business
Graduate Career Services
 630 Childs Way
 Popovich Hall room 310
 Los Angeles, CA 90089-2632
 213-740-0156
mba.crc@marshall.usc.edu

Undergraduate Majors Represented

Companies that hired MSF

Amgen	Evercore
Ayco, a Goldman Sachs Company	Forever 21
Bank of America Merrill Lynch	Goldman Sachs
Barclays	Gopher Asset
Cascadia Capital	GF Securities
China Galaxy Securities	JP Morgan
Citigroup	Morgan Stanley
CMR Capital Group LLC	RBC Capital Markets
Comerica Bank	Roth Capital Partners
Commercial Bank	Transworld Business Advisors
Compass Lexecon	Keck Medicine of USC
Cybernaut Investment Group	Wilshire Associates
Deloitte	Xi'an Qujiang Culture Holdings Co. Ltd.
East West Bank

Cities where our students found employment

Beijing	Monterey Park	San Francisco
Burbank	New York	Santa Monica
Hangzhou	Newport Beach	Shanghai
Houston	Pasadena	Sherman Oaks
Irvine	Portland	Tokyo
Long Beach	Riyadh	Yunnan Province
Los Angeles	San Diego	