Colleagues:

Please find attached a notification we just received related to a COVID-19 exposure from March 13.

Gareth M. James | USC Marshall School of Business
Interim Dean and E. Morgan Stanley Chair in Business Administration
Professor of Data Sciences and Operations
University of Southern California

March 26, 2020

Dear faculty, staff and students of USC Marshall School of Business and residents and staff of McCarthy Honors Residential College:

We are contacting you because we have recently received information about a confirmed case of COVID-19 from an individual who regularly had contact in Hoffman Hall at the USC Marshall School of Business and who is a former resident of McCarthy Honors Residential College. The last date the individual was on campus was March 13, 2020. The individual has recovered and is living off campus.

As a member of the Marshall community or resident of McCarthy Honors Residential College we are advising you that you may have had an exposure to COVID-19.

If you develop symptoms, please begin self-isolation. Faculty and staff should contact their health care providers. Students should contact Student Health at 213-740-9355 or go to http://usc.edu/mshr and make a TeleHealth appointment for respiratory symptoms.

If you are a student in Los Angeles, in USC Housing or in a nearby location, and require relocation assistance in order to self-isolate, please contact the COVID-19 hotline at 213-740-6291 or email covid19@usc.edu.

For more information and updates on COVID-19, please visit https://sites.usc.edu/coronavirus/

USC Student Health
COVID-19 Response Team
https://usc.edu/coronavirus