

Marshall Graduate Career Services Peer Coach Team Fall 2020 – Spring 2021

Dear Marshall Graduate Students,

Marshall Graduate Career Services is excited to share the Peer Coaches for the 2020-2021 Peer Coach Program. This initiative is a peer-to-peer coaching program that expands and enhances existing career services, with increased accessibility to career resources, coaching, and support.

Peer Coaches are second-year full-time MBA students or third-year MBA.PM students passionate about helping others, and were selected, trained, and hired to provide coaching to Marshall graduate students.

Peer Coaches are active partners with career services and provide support for core skills required for a successful job search, including resume and cover letter reviews, serving as mock interview practice partners, LinkedIn profile critiques, and guidance for a myriad of online resources offered by Graduate Career Services.
